

*The Hungarian-American Fulbright Commission
for Educational Exchange cordially invites you to*

” ’56 Revolution: A Day of Remembrance” commemorating the 60th Anniversary of the 1956 Revolution

Friday, October 7, 2016 from 10:15 a.m.

*Venue:
Párbeszéd Háza (House of Dialogue)
Pázmány Péter Conference Room
Budapest, VIII. Horánszky utca u. 20.*

RSVP: <https://goo.gl/forms/8FPa33Ccl9ltN4be2>

'56 Revolution: What happened in the Fulbright's Commission's current neighborhood?

- 10:15 Welcome by US Embassy representative and Károly Jókay
- 10:30 Tibor Frank, "'56 in the Context of the Cold War"
- 11:15 Coffee Break
- 11:45 Donald E. Morse, "From the Streets to the States: Reactions to '56"
- 12:30 Memory Project: '56ers Recall the Events (Werkfilm by Hungarian-American filmmaker Réka Pigniczky, approx. 20 minutes)
- 1:15 Light Lunch
- 2:00 Tibor Glant, "'56 in Hungarian Pop Culture"
- 2:45 Bence Ságvári: "The VIII. District in Pictures then and now" (short film about our walk)
- 3:15 Historical Walk in Fulbright's Neighborhood (outside tour guide, approx 60-90 minutes)