EducationUSA Hungary NewsL: Issue 3/2020

The U.S. College Experience

Are you interested in learning more about the life of a U.S. college student? Come speak with three Americans about their experiences studying at New York University, the City University of New York-Hunter College & Baruch College, and Wake Forest University in Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

Hear a firsthand account of what the journey is like to become a doctor in the U.S., from pre-med to residency, or what it is like to study majors like Psychology or Political Science in New York City. Learn tips and get advice about not just applying to but also surviving college and graduate school.

When: Tuesday, February 4, 2020, 3:30-5:00 PM

Where: EducationUSA Advising Center, 1111 Budapest, Bertalan Lajos utca 2. #901.

Free participation; please send your RSVP to educationusa@fulbright.hu.

Tips from an expert: Navigating a U.S. university

Meet EducationUSA Ecuador adviser Belén Robles! On May 9, 2015, she graduated from the University of Evansville in Indiana with a degree in business and economics and a minor in political science. Two days later, she became an academic adviser at the EducationUSA center in Guayaquil, where she offers students guidance in how to apply to and succeed at U.S. colleges and universities.
