Competitive College Club

Competitive College Club will have its second meeting next week (see info below). We will have a guest speaker from Webster University (<http://www.webster.edu/>) holding an information session on the many opportunities this institution offers.

The Competitive College Club is an intensive results-oriented group advising program. It is designed to provide an appropriate skill-set for international students applying to U.S. institutions. Moreover, it will also prepare you for standardized tests, the American interactive classroom style and help build the extracurricular section of your college application.

If you would like to practice your English, meet likeminded students and have fun, join us! It is free of charge and accepts high school students in grades 9-12.

Our second session will be held on March 3rd (Tuesday)!

Venue: Fulbright EducationUSA Advising Center (1082 Bp., Baross u. 62, 1st floor, Room 111)

Time: 3:00-4:00 p.m.

Note: previous registration is required for the session (educationusa@fulbright.hu, +36-1-462-

Benjamin Franklin Transatlantic Fellows Summer Institute for High School Students

The U.S. Embassy Budapest is soliciting applications for the 2015 Benjamin Franklin Transatlantic Fellows Summer Institutes. Two four-week Institutes, offered in summer 2015, will accommodate up to 90 Fellows total. Each Institute, one at Wake Forest University in North Carolina and the other at Purdue University in Indiana, will be designed for 35 European students and 10 Americans, ages 16 to 18. Institute activities include discussion of global issues of common interest, leadership and media training, collaborative project development, community service, educational travel, and plans for follow-on activities. Both Institutes will take place from June 27 to July 25, 2015.

All costs, including domestic and international travel, will be covered by the U.S.

Embassy Budapest.

Students must be 16, 17 or 18 years of age as of June 27, 2015 to be eligible for participation in the program. English fluency is a must.

Application deadline: February 28th, 2015
