Pine Manor College English Language Institute (MA) Announces Spring 2015 Scholarship

A $500 scholarship is granted to students who enroll for programs of four weeks or more that begin before June 30, 2015. The $500 will be taken off your tuition bill. Students may start classes any Monday from now until late June 2015. This is not a full-pay scholarship (all program costs and details are listed at www.pmc.edu/eli). Apply for Intensive English Program, which requires a student visa, or the Semi-Intensive Program, which allows you to enter the U.S. with a tourist visa.

Apply online at www.pmc.edu/eli-application for one a program. In the section that asks “How did you hear of Pine Manor College English Language Institute?” indicate you are applying for the scholarship and where you heard about it.

Doane College (NE) International Scholarships

Doane College provides scholarship funds for international students. Scholarship funds are based on academic and potentially co-curricular merit, such as athletics, music and theatre. International students may apply for academic scholarships by completing the personal statement on the International Student application for admission. The personal statement should address the student's career interests, academic performance (including any special honors), and why the student should be considered for a scholarship. This is a competitive process.

In the event a student has submitted an application without including a personal statement, the student may provide the personal statement via email to Joel Weyand, Vice President for Enrollment (joel.veyand@doane.edu).
