EducationUSA Hungary Newsletter: Issue 7/2022

Hello everyone and welcome to April 2022. The weather has begun to warm up and here at the EducationUSA advising center we have an interesting newsletter for you this month. This week we will have scholarship opportunities to view as well as another Fulbright Spotlight story for you to read. The final TOEFL, SAT, and GRE workshops are coming so check the dates and sign up if you are interested!

Fulbright Spotlight #2

The Fulbright Foreign Student Program provide grants for graduate students and other young professionals to study and research in the United States. Learn about this special U.S. government program of exchange through current Fulbright Grantees and their experiences in Hungary. Maya Shrikant was granted a Fulbright Grant for 2021-2022. Graduated from Arizona State University in 2021, she takes on a new adventure at the University of Debrecen. Shrikant continues her focus on health care technologies, genetic patent policy, and discrimination in medical systems by investigating COVID-19 vaccination gaps and discrimination in primary care settings within Roma Minority Settlements. Read more about her great adventure here.

Upcoming Workshops

These workshops provide an overview of the tests and important test-taking strategies. The workshop leader is a native speaker of English who has advised and taught college writing and now teaches university-level courses in Hungary. He will be available to provide assistance and feedback.

A full schedule of our workshops can be found on our website:

EducationUSA Connects Summer 2022
