EducationUSA Hungary Newsletter: Issue 10/2022

Farewell everyone!

This is my last newsletter as the Fulbright ETA for the 2021-2022 year. It was my honor and pleasure to work with everyone this year. Thank you to everyone who came to the workshops or into the EducationUSA advising center while I was here. I wish everyone success in the future with any and all of your plans. I will be returning to Denver, Colorado in the United States and I hope one day to return to Hungary and be able to visit. The new Fulbright ETA will be arriving in September, so be on the lookout for a NewsL beginning again around that time.

Fulbright Spotlight

The Fulbright Program is one of the United States Cultural Exchange Programs. Through the Fulbright U.S. Student Program grants are provided for study/research projects or becoming an English Teaching Assistant during one academic year in one of the 150 participating countries outside the U.S. The Fulbright Foreign Student Program provides grants for graduate students and other young professionals to study and research in the United States. Learn about this special U.S. government program of exchange through current Fulbright Grantees and their experiences in Hungary. In this Fulbright Spotlight we will be featuring Gregory Gaskel who is studying Cybersecurity in Debrecen. https://www.educationusa.hu/?page_id=1069
