GRANT

Grant William Currier was born and grew up in the suburbs of Cleveland, Ohio. He earned his Ph.D. in English at Oklahoma State University and is currently teaching at the University of Debrecen, where he also works with the local campus of American Corner. His maternal family emigrated from Borsod-Abaúj-Zemplén in the early 20th century, and he finds inspiration for his fiction from his family's rich heritage. His appreciation for the language and culture of Hungary grows daily as he stays in the country.

BRITTNEY

My name is Brittney Klein, and I'm originally from the suburbs of Chicago, Illinois. I received my bachelors degree in Elementary and Special Education from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln and my masters degree in Higher Education-Student Affairs from Boston College. I was a teacher for almost 10 years in multiple US states as well as the Czech Republic. As the Fulbright ETA assigned to EducationUSA, I will be conducting individual student advising sessions and hosting educational workshops (see below for upcoming dates) to prepare students to study in the US. I also teach English at ELTE's Bárczi Gusztáv Faculty of Special Needs Education. I'm looking forward to a wonderful year!

ANNIE

I was born and raised in the small historic town of Selma, Alabama and graduated from Washington and Lee University with a bachelors of arts in Religion and Sociology, as well as a minor in Poverty and Human Capabilities Studies. After graduating, I moved to Washington D.C. where I completed the Capital Fellows program and worked as an ESOL teacher to people in the immigrant and refugee communities. After spending some time working on Capitol Hill, I returned to my passion for cross-cultural teaching and international relations. I'm here with Fulbright Hungary as the Roma Student Initiative ETA and have the privilege of working in Pécs with Roma students at the Ghandi High School, as well as with the American Corner in Pécs. I look forward to the vibrant opportunities to learn more about the history and culture of Roma people, to engage meaningfully with students and staff, and to contribute to the positive relationship-building and impact-driven community engagement going on here in Pécs and beyond!

EMMY

My name is Emmy Todd and I am originally from Hilton Head Island, South Carolina. I graduated in 2022 from the College of Wooster (Ohio) with a bachelor's degree in Political Science and a focus in International Relations. For my Fulbright, I am in Veszprém, Hungary teaching Pronunciation and Language Development at the University of Pannonia. I am also working at the American Corner in Veszprém where I will assist in activities like conversation clubs and celebrations of American culture. I'm very excited to be in Veszprém and look forward to getting to know my students and the community!
