As the start of the Spring semester approaches, make sure that you start classes with your "best foot forward"!

We know that it can be overwhelming trying to figure out how to stay on top of all of your classes and assignments. Luckily, there are many free resources and guides online that can help you become a stronger and more confident student! We recommend starting with websites like Georgetown University's Academic Resource Center or UPenn's Weingarten Center.

Not a fan of these specific resources? No problem - this is just one example; you can Google terms like "university study resources" to find others you might like better!
