

Fulbright Hungary <educationusa@fulbright.hu>

EDUCATIONUSA HUNGARY NEWSLETTER: Issue 13/2018

Fulbright-EducationUSA <educationusa@fulbright.hu>
To: fulbright-educationusa@fulbright.hu

Thu, Oct 25, 2018 at 2:22 PM

EducationUSA Hungary NewsL: Issue 13/2018

Simplifying the Logistics of U.S. Study

When starting to think about studying in the United States, it may seem overwhelming at first. There are different application requirements, unfamiliar entrance exams, and of course financial obligations. Fortunately, there are a wide variety of resources available to assist with the transition to a university or college in the United States. Since application and testing season is upon us these are the topics we are focusing on this week. For example, check out information the information below on a web-chat dedicated to financing opportunities for U.S. Study:

Are you interested in studying in the U.S. but unsure if you can afford it? Costs may seem high, but there are many avenues to financing an education at any U.S. college or university. Join this EducationUSA Facebook LIVE to find answers! U.S. higher education experts, currently-enrolled international students, and a U.S. Department of State official will help you navigate the financing process your U.S. studies. Find out how thousands of international students earn outstanding U.S. degrees while managing costs. Ask questions and learn how U.S. campuses work with international students to meet their needs.

This free, online discussion is open to the public and will include a moderated conversation with questions submitted live from the online audience. Join from your home computer or mobile device by going here.

Upcoming Workshops

Prepare for the college application process by improving your test-taking and writing skills with one of EducationUSA's upcoming workshops:

TOEFL

Thursday, November 8, 2:00-5:00 pm

SAT Test Preparation and Study Skills

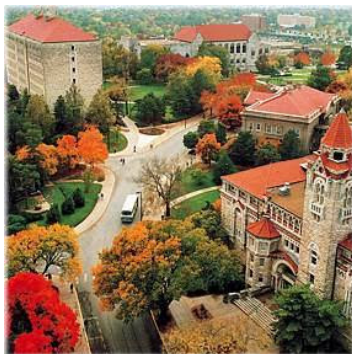

Tuesday, November 13, 2:30-4:00 pm

A full schedule of workshops can be found on our website.

Registration for the workshops is required. Please email or call our office to register.

Schools in Focus

University of Kansas

Type: Large, 4 year, public university

Location: Lawrence, Kansas

Enrollment: 28,091 undergraduates

International Scholarships: A variety of merit-based scholarships are available.

Application Requirements: Online application, transcript, TOEFL 79/IELTS 6.5

Deadline: May 1

Point of Interest: Home to more than 2,100 international students.

Has top-ranked programs in petroleum engineering, public administration, and physical therapy.

For more information, click here.

American University

Type: Medium-sized, private university

For more information click here.

For more information click here.

News and Resources

The SAT Score Report may seem confusing to someone who has just taken the exam for the first time. However, it's imperative for students to understand score reports so that you can decide on the best plan-of-action after taking the exam. Study up on the score report here.

Should You Retake the SAT?

After sitting for the SAT, some students may find that their initial test results do not quite match their expectations. Taking a standardized exam multiple times can be a great idea in certain instances, but for students with limited time to improve, it can also be stressful to consider spending more time on the ACT or SAT. For students who are weighing this decision, here are three major considerations to review.

Understanding the GRE: A Graduate School Entrance Exam

The GRE is often required for students interested in graduate study in the United States. It's a very important component of a graduate school application, so understanding the test is key. Do you want to know how schools evaluate your GRE score? How much do GRE scores matter? How should you study for the GRE? Everything you need to know about the test is here.

*“The capacity to learn is a gift; the ability to learn is a skill; the willingness to learn is a choice.”*

—Brian Herbert

Tel: +36 1 462 8050

E-mail: educationusa@fulbright.hu

Website: www.fulbright.hu/educationusa

