A World of Opportunities in the U.S.

Today we are highlighting three very exciting opportunities for both students, educators, and entrepreneurs to experience life in the United States. Check them out below:

Study of U.S. Institutions for Secondary School Educators

The Study of the U.S. Institutes \(SUSI\) for Secondary Educators are intensive post-graduate level academic programs with integrated study tours whose purpose is to provide foreign secondary school educators and administrators the opportunity to deepen their understanding of U.S. society, culture, values, and institutions. The ultimate goal of the Institutes is to strengthen curricula and to enhance the quality of teaching about the U.S. in secondary schools and other academic institutions abroad. The program will take place over the course of five weeks beginning in early June 2019. The application deadline is quickly approaching on January 2nd. Find more information here.

Young Transatlantic Innovation Leaders Initiative

YTILI empowers young European entrepreneurs and innovators with the tools and networks they need to grow their enterprises and contribute to economic development. YTILI is also a vehicle for building a transatlantic network of innovators that can contribute to on an ongoing policy dialogue. As a YTILI Fellow you will engage in a series of professional development and leadership activities that are designed to support the growth and development of business ventures in your home community. The fellowship includes an Opening Summit in Europe, a week-long experience in a U.S. host city, a Closing Conference in Washington, DC, and online engagement-training opportunities.
