EducationUSA Hungary NewsL: Issue 9/2019

Welcome Back!

With the start of a new school year, EducationUSA has some exciting opportunities for you including test-taking workshops, college fairs, and other events. Be sure that you are taking advantage of these opportunities proactively so that you are well-prepared for any test and application deadlines. The first step in preparing for study in the U.S. is researching your options, which you will find additional information on throughout this newsletter. We are excited to assist you in your educational journey this year. Please don't hesitate to reach out to us!

New Face at EducationUSA

Dear EducationUSA Students and Families,

It is my pleasure to join the EducationUSA team this year as a 2019-2020 Fulbright grant recipient. I recently moved to Budapest from Queens, New York (one of the five boroughs in New York City), where I advised undergraduate and graduate students on applying for study abroad opportunities, which included many international students. I previously completed a Master's in Higher Education Administration, and a Bachelor's in Graphic Design and Business Communication.

For the next 9 months, I will be working at EducationUSA in Budapest to help you as you explore and pursue available educational opportunities in the United States. I will also teach English at the Budapest Metropolitan University. I am excited to work with you to assist you in pursuing more opportunities. Please feel free to contact me at tsang@fulbright.hu with any questions!

All the best,
Victoria Tsang
