

STUDENT CONFERENCE AY 2009/2010
APRIL 28, 2010

	Name	Presentation title	Host Institute	Home Institution
10:00	Welcome
10:10	Allison Beresford	From Reform to Revolution: Changes in the Hungarian Literary Language	Eötvös Loránd University, Eötvös József Collegium	Occidental College
10:30	Adee Braun	Exhibiting the Nation: Constructing Hungarian National Identity at World's Fairs during the Dual Empire	Hungarian Academy of Sciences Research Institute for Art History	Columbia University
10:50	Leslie Waters	The Reintegration of Southern Felvidék and the Hungarian Territorial Revisionist Project, 1938-1945	Hungarian Academy of Sciences Institute of History	University of California, Los Angeles
11:10	Christopher Maroshegyi	Hungary's Marshall Plan? An Impact Evaluation of the EU's Structural Funds among Hungarian SMEs	Municipality of Budapest, District 15	Boston College
11:30	Barbara Coons	Health Concerns of Roma in Northeastern Hungary	University of Debrecen	University of Pennsylvania
11:50-12:10	Break
12:10	Kristina Poznan	Before and After Bologna: Perspectives on University-Level English Language Studies in Hungary	Károli Gáspár University Fulbright Educational Advising Center	College of William & Mary
	Benjamin Brooks		Eszterházy Károly College	University of Cincinnati
12:50	Brett Frankel	A Short Mathematical Lesson, Taught in a Hungarian Style	Eötvös Loránd University	Johns Hopkins University
1:10	Ameerah Chowdhury	Codes	Alfréd Rényi Institute of Mathematics	University of California, San Diego