POST UNIVERSITY $8,000 INTERNATIONAL STUDENT SCHOLARSHIP

Post University is a student-focused, career-driven institution committed to helping students develop the knowledge, personal skills and experience they need to become leaders in their chosen fields. With small classes and dedicated faculty and staff, Post University can provide students with the personal attention they need to succeed. Located in Waterbury, Connecticut, we also can offer you the best of all worlds – a small, safe New England campus that's not far from two of the nation's most exciting cities, Boston and New York. We invite you to explore all that Post University has to offer.

Post University is excited to announce an annual $8,000 USD scholarship for all non-athlete international students on F-1 visas! Each semester, $4,000 USD is deposited into your student account to help offset the cost of attendance. This scholarship is automatically renewed annually, for as long as you are enrolled full-time on-ground at our beautiful Waterbury, CT campus.

CHAMINADE UNIVERSITY OF HONOLULU MERIT-BASED SCHOLARSHIPS

Chaminade University of Honolulu is a small, Catholic, comprehensive university sponsored by the Province of the United States of America of the Society of Mary (Marianists). It is located on a hillside in suburban Honolulu, two miles from Waikiki beach. Chaminade currently offers three bachelor's degrees in twenty-two undergraduate majors, five graduate degree programs, and several professional certificate programs.

Merit-based scholarships are available to international freshmen and transfer students and are automatically granted with admittance to our full time, undergraduate program. They are based solely on GPA, and not based on need. Simply apply to the University, no additional paperwork is required. These institutional grants are given in addition to any aid based on financial need. These scholarships are renewed each year for a maximum of 4 years.

NORTH DAKOTA STATE UNIVERSITY ACADEMIC AND CULTURAL SHARING SCHOLARSHIP

NDSU

North Dakota State University is distinctive as a student-focused, land-grant, research university, ranked by the Carnegie Commission on Higher Education among the top 108 public and private universities in the country. NDSU is in the elite category of "Research Universities/Very High Research Activity." NDSU is one of two flagship universities in North Dakota, with several programs ranked in the Top 100 by the National Science Foundation.

The Academic and Cultural Sharing Scholarship reduces tuition for undergraduate international students to 50 percent of the out-of-state tuition rate. This scholarship is available to all bachelor's degree seeking international students who qualify for admission at North Dakota State University and hold F-1 student status. Given the nature of the scholarship, recipients are expected to share their cultures with U.S. students, faculty, staff and members of the community in activities that are academically and culturally beneficial. This enables people to increase their knowledge of the scholarship recipients' cultures and countries of origin and to gain a better sense of global society.

THE SCHLUMBERGER FOUNDATION FACULTY FOR THE FUTURE FELLOWSHIP

The Schlumberger Foundation Faculty for the Future program awards fellowships to women from developing and emerging economies to pursue PhD or postdoctoral studies in the physical sciences and related disciplines at top universities abroad. The program's long-term goal is to generate conditions that result in more women pursuing academic careers in scientific disciplines.

Ultimately, grant recipients are expected to contribute to the socio-economic development of their home countries and regions by strengthening the faculties in their home universities, pursuing relevant research, or using their specific expertise to address policy issues.

The 2012-2013 Faculty for the Future Fellowships award session will close on November 30th, 2011.

NORTHWEST MICHIGAN INTERNATIONAL CLUB GIVES BACK

Northwestern Michigan College's International Club has found new energy with a volunteer program that provides opportunities for students to connect with the local community. International and domestic students work side-by-side to help make a difference in Traverse City, Michigan.

Club President, Jonathan Madrigal Trejos, says, "This is the perfect way for international students to become integrated in the community and to show how we care about giving back. It has really boosted our membership and gotten students excited about volunteering."

Northwestern Michigan College proudly hosts 20-30 international students each year on its campus. The International Club is one of many ways NMC supports and encourages international student engagement with other students and the community.
