I. Financial Aid

UNIVERSITY OF THE SOUTH INTERNATIONAL STUDENT GRANTS

Know as "Sewanee" by its students, faculty, staff and friends, The University of The South offers an unmatched educational experience. The University remains purposefully small and dedicated to building a sense of community.

Financial assistance for international students is available in the form of Sewanee's International Student Grant program. These grants range from $5,000 a year to over $40,000 per year (fully covering tuition, fees, room, and board). To be considered for the International Student Grant Program, students must submit all required application materials (including the Statement of Financial Responsibility & all official financial documentation) and an International Student Grant Essay by the early action deadline of December 1st.

SEATTLE CENTRAL COMMUNITY COLLEGE MERIT-BASED SCHOLARSHIPS

Seattle Central Community College is located on Capitol Hill, the vibrant urban center of Seattle life. We are an educational home for our students, a leadership incubator for our community and an economic catalyst for our state and beyond. Seattle Central is committed to creating a learning environment that is accessible, diverse, responsive, and innovative.

The International Education Programs Division offers scholarships to new international students. A new student is one who has applied for admission but who has not yet attended classes full time at Seattle Central. Scholarships are only given to students who enroll at Seattle Central Community College. The scholarships are merit-based; consideration is not given to financial need as all scholarship applicants must submit proof of full financial support before being considered.

CARLETON COLLEGE NEED-BASED SCHOLARSHIPS

Carleton College

Carleton's rigorous and highly supportive environment prepares students for a constantly changing world. Our liberal arts curriculum - taught by an exceptional faculty dedicated to teaching undergraduates - combines broad learning in the arts, humanities, mathematics, and natural and social sciences, with in-depth study in a particular field. We encourage students to go beyond the obvious to approach problems creatively. Students learn skills that will last a lifetime: critical thinking, effective self-expression, and flexibility in adapting to dynamic situations.

Carleton College is proud to announce an expansion of our commitment to recruit international students from around the world. Our need-based scholarships can provide up to the full comprehensive fee and also include one round-trip plane ticket to and from campus and medical insurance.

UNIVERSITY OF TULSA MERIT-BASED SCHOLARSHIPS

As a comprehensive, doctoral-degree-granting institution, The University of Tulsa provides undergraduate, graduate, and professional education of the highest quality in the arts, humanities, sciences, business, education, engineering, law, nursing, and applied health sciences.

The University of Tulsa is happy to announce that we have increased scholarship offerings for international undergraduate students. We now have scholarships of up to $15,000 per year for qualified international students. The scholarships are merit-based and all applicants are considered, so there is no additional application process.

FULL SAIL UNIVERSITY INTERNATIONAL STUDENT SCHOLARSHIPS

More than 30 years ago, Full Sail began as a dream to create a place where people could learn how to take their passion for entertainment and turn it into a career they loved. It started with music and sound, but our dream quickly grew to fit the dreams of our students until it was bigger than we could have ever imagined. Film, design, show production, games, animation, web design, the business of the entertainment world.

Full Sail University offers scholarship opportunities for those who qualify. Scholarships include the Merit Scholarship, Full Sail Alumni Scholarship, Entertainment & Media Industry Scholarship for Women, Global Achievement Scholarship, Dedication Scholarship and Full Sail Inspiration Scholarship.

GEORGIA SOUTHERN UNIVERSITY INTERNATIONAL DIVERSITY SCHOLARSHIPS

Georgia Southern University is a public, Carnegie Doctoral/Research university devoted to academic distinction in teaching, scholarship, and service. The University's hallmark is a culture of engagement that bridges theory with practice, extends the learning environment beyond the classroom, and promotes student growth and life success. Georgia Southern's nationally accredited academic programs in the liberal arts, sciences, and professional studies prepare a diverse and select undergraduate and graduate student population for leadership and service as world citizens.

Georgia Southern University recognizes the importance of international education and the benefits of a multicultural student population. To help ensure diversity, Georgia Southern University awards a limited number of out-of-country tuition waivers to undergraduate and graduate international students who demonstrate good academic standing, financial need, and commitment to the university and community. Students who receive an International Student Diversity Scholarship pay in-state tuition, an award equal to approximately $10,000 per academic year.

MOUNT HOLYOKE COLLEGE SHOWCASES STUDENT RESEARCH AND INTERNSHIPS

As the first of the Seven Sisters—the female equivalent of the once predominantly male Ivy League—Mount Holyoke established higher education for women as a serious endeavor. The symposium, which is in its ninth year, is intended to demonstrate the strong connections between academic work at Mount Holyoke College and its practical application in the world.

On October 12, more than 600 people attended Mount Holyoke College's LEAP Symposium, the College's annual showcase of student research projects and internship experiences. In 36 panels held throughout the day at the Kendade Science Center, 149 students presented on their summer experiences and shared reflections on what they learned about themselves.
