EducationUSA Hungary NewsL: Issue 14/2022Welcome to the Holiday Edition of our Newsletter!

The holidays are a time for us all to reflect on the past year and dream about what 2023 will hold. We hope that during your reflections, you take time to celebrate the commitment you have shown to your educational goals. Whether you've attended a workshop, sent in a personal statement for feedback, or simply prepared for a test with the help of our library -- we are so glad you are here and we are excited to see the new heights you reach in 2023.

This newsletter contains important information about the function of EducationUSA over the holiday season.

camp leaders

How about spending it in the U.S. on a scholarship? The Ambassadors Fund Summer Work Travel program is open to Hungarian university students and promises incredible, life-changing adventures.

Looking to share your culture while also saving money on tuition? Check out the International Cultural Service Program (ICSP) at the University of Oregon!

International students who demonstrate financial need and exceptional merit may apply for the International Cultural Service Program (ICSP). Selected ICSP students receive a $25,000 tuition-waiver scholarship, which covers approximately 60% of the cost of tuition and about 40% of the total estimated expense for one academic year including tuition, fees, insurance and living expenses. ICSP students agree to complete 66-80 hours per year of cultural service as required by the program.

Looking for a full-tuition scholarship? Check out the International Diversity Scholarship at Maryville College!

This one full-tuition scholarship is awarded to entering international students who have a demonstrated record of academic achievement, demonstrated international leadership, have a clear plan for contributing to the international community on campus, and can show financial need. Students must submit a separate application to be considered. This is only available for first-year international students.
