Introducing our new EducationUSA Intern: Ms. Laura Byron

Our Advising Center is proud to introduce our new EducationUSA Intern, Ms. Laura Byron.

Please see a short introduction from Laura:

Hi, everyone! My name is Laura Byron and I am the new intern at the Fulbright Advising Center. I currently go to college at Cal Poly in the central coast of California. Although I entered school as a sociology major, I ended up switching to study business with a focus in accounting. I would love to talk with you all about the wide range of majors available in the U.S. and how to choose the right major for you! Beyond my schooling, I hold a position in my sorority and have worked as both a tutor and an accounting assistant for my college. I am a great source of information on college culture within the U.S., and I am happy to answer any questions you might have in relation to sports, college classes, Greek life, on-campus or off-campus jobs, or pop culture in general. Hope to see you guys soon!

You may also ask for individual appointments with Laura, if you feel like chatting about US higher education, college life, Greek life at college, picking a major, and etc.
