How to Write a Good College Application Essay

College application deadlines can come very quickly. One of the key parts of the application is the all-important application essay. This is where students can speak about who they really are and try to make a personal connection and positive impression on admissions committees. Review expert tips on writing a good college essay here.

Glossary to Higher Education in the United States

When applying to schools in another country, there may be many unfamiliar terms that you come across in the process. If you've seen words such as "academic adviser," "designated school official," and "grade point average," and wanted some clarification, we have just the resource for you. You can find a list and explanation of specialized higher education terms here.
