UNIVERSITY OF RICHMOND FULL TUITION SCHOLARSHIPS

The University of Richmond will award up to 45 full tuition scholarships annually, renewable for up to eight consecutive semesters, for incoming first-year students. The University will consider all students for the Richmond Scholars Program who submit a complete application by December 1, 2011.

The evaluation process is highly personalized and holistic. Students who are selected to advance to the semi-final round will be notified by email and postal mail. Finalists will be notified by email so they can make arrangements for an expense-paid campus visit for the required scholarship interview.

MINNESOTA STATE UNIVERSITY TUITION REDUCTION FOR NEW INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

Minnesota State University (MSU) offers more than 140 bachelor's programs and 80 graduate programs. Each year, the university is selected to host U.S. Government-sponsored students on Fulbright, Muskie, and other scholarships programs. Currently, 600 international students from 72 countries are enrolled at MSU and enjoy a safe and welcoming community.

MSU will offer new international students an in-state resident tuition scholarship that can be renewed each semester. First semester reduced tuition and fee rates are given automatically to new undergraduate F & J international students on a MSU I-20 (DS2019) during their first semester. First semester reduced tuition and fee rates may continue based on meeting and maintaining the Cultural Contribution scholarship requirements of a 2.5 GPA and 25 completed cultural contribution hours.

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN EAU CLAIRE INTERNATIONAL STUDENT SCHOLARSHIPS

Founded in 1916, UW-Eau Claire continues to build its national reputation based on the achievements of its students and faculty. As one of the Midwest's top public universities, UW-Eau Claire provides students with small classes led by talented professors, cutting-edge programs, endless opportunities to get involved and experience more of the world, and the support they need to meet their goals for success. Add to that a safe and friendly campus community and beautiful surroundings (from rivers and bike trails to shopping and entertainment), and you have one exceptional place.

Approximately 90 percent of international students receive scholarships. Scholarship applications are reviewed after students are accepted to UW-Eau Claire.

UNIVERSITY OF NEVADA RENO MERIT SCHOLARSHIPS

Founded in 1874, the University of Nevada, Reno, is the oldest university in the state of Nevada. This mid-sized university is a fully accredited public university and a comprehensive Doctoral/Research Tier One University. The academic atmosphere at Nevada is vibrant, challenging, and personal; the degrees earned here will open doors to your future.

Nevada offers international awards for undergraduate students, and scholarships for both undergraduate and graduate international students. Selection is based on merit and participation in extracurricular activities.

ILLINOIS STATE UNIVERSITY GRADUATE ASSISTANTSHIP PROGRAM

Illinois State University graduate programs teach students advanced skills which prepare them for further scholarly, professional, and creative endeavors. More than 20,000 students -- of which nearly 3,000 are graduate students -- attend Illinois State University each year.

ILLINOIS STATE UNIVERSITY

Approximately one-third of all Illinois State graduate students have assistantship support. Graduate assistantships include a monthly stipend, which varies in amount depending on the number of hours required for the assistantship, student status, source of the funding, or nature of the assistantship assignment. Assistantships are intended to facilitate progress toward a graduate degree.

UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA STUDENTS GIVE UP COFFEE AND SODA

Most college students would cringe at the thought of giving up their daily coffee or caffeinated soda, especially for 10 straight days.

Five hundred University of Oklahoma students, however, have been drinking only water, or limiting their consumption of drinks like coffee and soda, since Monday. The students are pledging the money usually spent on other beverages to Living Water International's 10 Days program.
