

I. Financial Aid

UG: Daemen College Merit Scholarships and Grants

UG: Florida Institute of Technology Academic and Transfer Scholarships

Grad: Hawaii Pacific University Academic Scholarships

Grad/Postgrad: Cornell University Fellowships

II. Campus News

- Gallaudet University Launches Five New Programs for Fall 2012
- Monmouth University Announces 11th Annual Global Understanding Convention
- Washington & Jefferson College Introduces Pre-College International Summer Program
- Study Abroad Can Change Your Life - And Your Country
- Clark University introduces Master of Science in Accounting Program
- Eastern Illinois University Introduces New Master of Science in Sustainable Energy Program

I. Financial Aid

DAEMEN COLLEGE MERIT SCHOLARSHIPS AND GRANTS

Daemen College is a private, nonsectarian, co-educational, comprehensive college in Amherst, New York, chartered to award both undergraduate and graduate level degrees. Daemen's identity is clear. We insist on a healthy and strategic balance between a liberal arts foundation and solid career preparation.

Daemen College offers three different merit scholarships to freshmen and transfer students. The Trustee's Scholarship is a full tuition scholarship awarded to freshmen of the highest caliber. The President's Scholarship ($7,000-$10,000) and Dean's Scholarship ($5,000-$7,000) are awarded annually to freshmen or transfer students of proven academic ability.

For more information, please visit: <http://bit.ly/Hpi3bd>

FLORIDA INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY ACADEMIC AND TRANSFER SCHOLARSHIPS

Florida Institute of Technology is an independent technological university that provides quality education, furthers knowledge through basic and applied research, and serves the diverse needs of our local, state, national and international constituencies.

Academic scholarships are available through the Office of Admission. Scholarships are awarded to students with very strong secondary school grades. Scholarships may be available to qualified students regardless of country of citizenship. Scholarships range from $5,000 to $12,000 per year and are awarded automatically at the time of admission. These scholarships are only awarded to students with no prior community college or university course work. Those students having attended, or who are currently attending, a community college or university may be eligible for a Transfer Scholarship of $8,000 per year ($4,000 per semester) until graduation.

For more information, please visit: <http://bit.ly/H2LyAk>

HAWAII PACIFIC UNIVERSITY ACADEMIC SCHOLARSHIPS

Hawai'i Pacific University (HPU) is a private, nonprofit university with a student population of approximately 7,000 undergraduate and 1,200 graduate students. HPU is one of the most culturally diverse universities in America with students from all 50 U.S. states and more than 100 countries.

Hawai'i Pacific University awards a limited number of graduate scholarships each fall and spring semesters to new graduate students. These scholarships are available for 2 years, as long as the student is in good standing and maintains a 3.0 GPA. There are three different scholarships available: Trustee's Scholarship ($6,000/year); Dean's Scholarship ($4,000/year); and Graduate Kokua Scholarship ($2,000/year).

For more information, please visit: <http://bit.ly/H1zCxi>

CORNELL UNIVERSITY FELLOWSHIPS

Today's Cornell reflects this heritage of egalitarian excellence. Both a private university and the land-grant institution of New York State, Cornell University is the most educationally diverse member of the Ivy League.

Approximately 20 percent of our doctoral students studying on campus receive Cornell University Fellowships (referred to as Sage Fellowships or Cornell Fellowships depending on the field of study). These fellowships typically include full tuition, a nine-month stipend, and Cornell individual student health insurance. A summer stipend may also be provided to students. The graduate field to which you are applying will consider your eligibility for fellowships based on your application; no additional information is required.

For more information, please visit: <http://bit.ly/H1JK5C>

GALLAUDET UNIVERSITY LAUNCHES FIVE NEW PROGRAMS FOR FALL 2012

Gallaudet University is the world's only university in which all programs and services are specifically designed to accommodate deaf and hard of hearing students.

This fall, Gallaudet will offer new programs in Public Administration, Civil Engineering, Pastoral Counseling, Physician Assistant, and Sport Media. These programs are designed for deaf, hard of hearing, and hearing professionals working in local, state, or federal government agencies; non-profit human service organizations; or non-profit professional associations. Mark McKay, former president of the Deaf and Hard of Hearing in Government (DHHIG) describes these programs “as a way to fill a need for Deaf and Hard of Hearing individuals seeking a professional graduate-level degree for managers and aspiring managers in the executive levels of federal, state, and local government.”

For more information, please visit: <http://bit.ly/HcM77q>

MONMOUTH UNIVERSITY ANNOUNCES 11TH ANNUAL GLOBAL UNDERSTANDING CONVENTION

Monmouth University Institute for Global Understanding is pleased to announce that its 11th annual Global Understanding Convention will be held from April 2 - 6, 2012. The campus-wide interdisciplinary convention is free and open to the public. This year's convention, “Freedom, Sustainability, and Security: Creating Interconnected and Inclusive Communities,” explores the complex relationships between the environment and human security.

For more information, please visit: <http://bit.ly/HmhZWD>

WASHINGTON & JEFFERSON COLLEGE INTRODUCES PRE-COLLEGE INTERNATIONAL SUMMER PROGRAM

Washington & Jefferson College is accepting applications to its new pre-college summer program, "College, Career, & Culture" July 16 to August 10.

Washington & Jefferson College recently received the Senator Paul Simon Spotlight award for our efforts to internationalize the campus, and this summer program is part of our long-term, on-going effort to bring international diversity to our campus as well as increase global awareness among all students, faculty, and staff. In addition to taking university-level courses, students will have a chance to job shadow, network with leaders in business and politics, and participate in cultural and career related excursions to Washington, DC, Pittsburgh, and beyond.

For more information, please visit: <http://bit.ly/GW8VLn>

STUDY ABROAD CAN CHANGE YOUR LIFE - AND YOUR COUNTRY

Fabiola Rodriguez-Ciampoli, who serves as Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for Western Hemisphere Affairs, describes the influence that study abroad can have on both a personal and global level. She points out that "although most people realize that study abroad can change an individual's life, they often don't recognize how important international exchanges can be as a contribution to relations between our countries." As an example of the impact study abroad can make, Fabiola discusses her interactions with the 100,000 Strong in the Americas initiative which promotes educational exchanges throughout the Western Hemisphere in order to encourage greater prosperity, economic equality, and sustainability.

For more information, please visit: <http://1.usa.gov/H3egvk>

CLARK UNIVERSITY INTRODUCES MASTER OF SCIENCE IN ACCOUNTING PROGRAM

The Clark University Graduate School of Management (GSOM) announces a new Master of Science in Accounting (MSA) program, beginning in September 2012.

“The MSA is a natural progression for our graduate programs here at GSOM and Clark,” said Joseph Sarkis, GSOM Interim Dean. “We already have world class Master of Business Administration and Master of Science in Finance programs. The new MSA program allows serious professionals and high quality students seeking CPA licensure a focused road to achieve their career objectives.” Scholarships ranging from 25% to 100% of tuition are available for international students.

For more information, please visit: <http://bit.ly/H0C2y6>

EASTERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY INTRODUCES NEW MASTER OF SCIENCE IN SUSTAINABLE ENERGY PROGRAM

The new M.S. in Sustainable Energy graduate degree program at Eastern Illinois University focuses on preparing leaders and managers for the entire energy industry. This multi-disciplinary degree is science based and technology management focused. The program is now accepting applications for Fall 2012.

For more information, please visit: <http://bit.ly/GYcZ9K>

Contact an EducationUSA adviser near you for guidance on finding and applying to an accredited U.S. college or university. EducationUSA.state.gov (Note: students must apply for financial aid directly with the institution listed)

An archive of these and other past financial aid and news announcements is available at EducationUSA.info/financial-aid

EducationUSA would like to thank all the institutions, foundations, and other organizations which so generously provide the financial aid and news information contained herein.