I. Financial Aid

UNIVERSITY OF THE PEOPLE HP WOMENS SCHOLARSHIP FUND

The HP Women's Scholarship Fund offers two-year scholarships to female students at University of the People (UoPeople), enabling them to pursue an associate degree in a program of their choice.

Students who are awarded a scholarship also have access to mentoring support from HP employees. These HP mentors provide UoPeople students with invaluable guidance and support, enriching their academic learning experience and playing a pivotal role in preparing them for employment after graduation. The mentors are an integral part of the support students receive in this program.

FAIRLEIGH DICKINSON UNIVERSITY (NJ) OFFERING PRESIDENTIAL SCHOLARSHIPS

Fairleigh Dickinson University's (FDU) Presidential Scholarships, which recognize exceptional academic performance, are full-tuition scholarships for first-time undergraduate students. Nomination by a guidance counselor or EducationUSA adviser is required.

Spring/January 2015 Deadline: November 1, 2014

Fall/August 2015 Deadline: January 15, 2015

Students must meet all of the following criteria to be considered:

- SAT composite score of 1300+ (CR + M) out of 1600; or ACT score of 29+
- GPA of 3.5+
- Enroll as a first year bachelor's degree student at FDU's Florham or Metropolitan Campuses
- On-campus housing is required for duration of study

The selection process is competitive, therefore not all students who meet the criteria will receive the Presidential Scholarship. Applicants who do not meet the deadline and/or who are not selected to receive the Presidential Scholarship will still be considered for our Col. Fairleigh Dickinson scholarships, which are valued between $11,000-$30,000 per year.

MONMOUTH COLLEGE (IL) OFFERS MERIT-BASED SCHOLARSHIPS TO INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

Monmouth
COLLEGE*

Monmouth College awards merit-based scholarships of up to $21,000 to international students, including transfer students.

Monmouth College, a selective, private liberal arts college of 1,260 students and 97 faculty in west central Illinois, welcomes international students. There is no application fee and admitted students are automatically considered for academic merit scholarship awards.

These are not one-year scholarships; all scholarships are renewable for each year of the student's college career (up to four years in total, given good academic standing). The scholarships are partial tuition waivers.

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON (WA) ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS FOR THE MASTER OF ARTS IN APPLIED INTERNATIONAL STUDIES

The University of Washington is currently accepting applications for the fall 2015 cohort of our Master of Arts in Applied International Studies (MAAIS) degree. The MAAIS program is a 10-month intensive graduate degree that is designed to bridge the worlds of theory and practice for individuals in the foreign affairs arena.

A unique feature of the MAAIS program is the Civic Council, a group of corporate, non-governmental, political and security sector leaders representing companies and organizations that are impacting and influencing today’s interconnected world. Civic Council members, including individuals from organizations such as Microsoft, Boeing, PATH and the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, bring their expertise and diverse perspectives to the program, offering networking opportunities and helping MAAIS students understand the rapidly changing society in which we live and work. The program is intended for students with at least five years of experience in international affairs.
