MISSOURI BAPTIST UNIVERSITY (MO) UNDERGRADUATE INTERNATIONAL STUDENT EARLY ADMISSION SCHOLARSHIP

We offer an Undergraduate International Student Early Admission Scholarship. This is a $10,000 scholarship available to any undergraduate international student who meets all of the admissions requirements by October 1, for the spring semester (beginning in January) or May 1st for the fall semester (beginning in August).

BALDWIN WALLACE UNIVERSITY (OH) MERIT-BASED SCHOLARSHIPS

Baldwin Wallace offers financial aid to qualified international students based on both academic achievement and financial need with awards ranging from $5,000.00 to $14,000.00 USD per academic year. Merit-based scholarships are based on a sliding scale, taking into account academic performance and results of standardized testing (as listed on:

<http://www.bw.edu/admission/financialaid/scholarshipsandaid/>). Students will be notified of any scholarships they are eligible for at the time of admission to the college.

(Baldwin Wallace is not in the position to provide full financial support, so a student's ability to self-finance is critical.)

RIPON COLLEGE (WI) RECEIVES GRANT FROM THE NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATION

Ripon College Science Department recently received a grant from the National Science Foundation to purchase a state-of-the-art liquid chromatography/mass spectrometry (LC/MS) instrument. This instrument allows our students to greatly enhance their research in organic synthesis and protein chemistry. Additionally, the capacity to perform biological and biochemical research at Ripon College will be significantly improved by gaining the ability to effectively study lipidomics. The LC/MS will be available for all students to use by January 2015.
