

Greetings from the Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth College!

As the first graduate school of business in the world, Tuck has always been committed to enrolling a diverse class from all backgrounds and nationalities. Our MBA program has been recognized as one of the best in the world by students, alumni, corporate recruiters and our peer schools.

Merit scholarships for international students

We have a substantial number of merit scholarships available for international students, as well as a loan program where the student would not need to have a co-signer. Tuck has a need-blind admissions policy, which means we offer admission to the most qualified candidates without regard to their financial circumstances.

For more information on financial aid, please see:

www.tuck.dartmouth.edu/admissions/aid/index.html

There is also a long list of outside scholarship resources at:

www.tuck.dartmouth.edu/admissions/aid/resources.html

Contact us:

We would be happy to answer any questions concerning the application process. All questions should be directed to tuckadmissions@dartmouth.edu

Best regards,

Dawna Clarke,
Director of Admissions

New combined LL.M./MBA program at Chicago-Kent College of Law

The LL.M. programs in International and Comparative Law, Financial Services Law and International Intellectual Property Law at Chicago Kent College of Law attract diverse and accomplished lawyers from all over the world.

As we review the applications for the class of 2010, we are mindful of the difficult choices that students must make as they look to study abroad. Concerns about safety and costs are paramount for many prospective students. I believe that the LL.M. Programs at Chicago-Kent are particularly well-suited to these difficult and changing times. We are located in the heart of the American Midwest, and offer students an intellectually challenging, culturally stimulating and economically affordable opportunity to study with leading scholars in international and comparative law.

As one of the few American law schools offering financial aid to LL.M. students, Chicago-Kent is proud of its role in supporting the next generation of entrepreneurial business leaders and legal scholars.

We are pleased to announce a new opportunity for students to combine legal and business study: Chicago-Kent and the Stuart School of Business now offer qualified students a combined LL.M./M.B.A. program - for more information please go to www.kentlaw.edu/international.

Email inquiries regarding our graduate law programs may be sent directly to the LL.M. Program Manager at intllm@kentlaw.edu.

Thank you for your continued interest in and support of our program.

Sincerely,

Lydia Lazar
Assistant Dean for International Law and Policy Development

Graduate: MPA in Environmental Science and Policy, Columbia University School of International & Public Affairs - Next Deadline January 15th

Program Description

The Master of Public Administration in Environmental Science and Policy trains sophisticated public managers and policymakers, who apply innovative, systems-based thinking to environmental issues. The program challenges students to think systemically and act pragmatically. To meet this challenge, the school offers a high-quality graduate program in management and policy analysis that emphasizes practical skills and is enriched by ecological and planetary science.

There is still time to apply to the 12-month MPA Program in Environmental Science and Policy beginning in May 2009. The next deadline to apply and be considered for fellowship is Thursday, January 15, 2009.

Students who do not wish to be considered for a fellowship, but do wish to apply, still have a chance to apply for the February 15th deadline.

To learn more about the program, please visit the program website:
www.columbia.edu/cu/mpaenvironment

Information about admissions and how to apply can be found online also at:
www.columbia.edu/cu/mpaenvironment/pages/application.html

You can also learn about the work students are doing in their workshops classes this semester; projects from this semester's workshop course can be viewed online. The workshop projects are the culmination of semester-long projects on a proposed but not yet enacted environmental law or treaty with an emphasis on management issues. The purpose of the fall-semester workshop is to provide students with the opportunity to manage and implement a public earth system and environmental program, and the opportunity to put into practice what has been learned throughout the year.

To view these projects, please visit:
www.columbia.edu/cu/mpaenvironment/pages/news_briefing_fall08b.html

With questions and for further information please contact:

Audrey Lapiner
Coordinator | Masters of Public Administration in Environmental Science and Policy
Columbia University
Office of Academic and Research Programs
The Earth Institute | Columbia University
ph: 212.851.0261
f: 212.864.4847
ael2130@columbia.edu

Graduate: New Master's Program in Finance
Claremont McKenna College, Robert Day School of Economics and Finance, Claremont, California

The Robert Day School Master's Program in Finance

This innovative one-year degree program is looking for students with strong leadership potential to engage in an intensive curriculum in finance and economics, beginning Fall 2009.

Highlights of the program include:

- Generous funding for merit-based scholarships
- Dedicated career services specialist and extensive alumni network
- Excellent faculty with experience both in academics and industry
- Intensive Finance curriculum completed in one year
- Co-curricular program designed to enhance leadership and communication skills, as well as provide access to speakers, conferences, alumni and employers.

For more information, visit: www.claremontmckenna.edu/rdschool

Scholarship: Admission to the Robert Day School Master's Program in Finance is need-blind. Robert Day's very generous gift to establish this program includes substantial merit-based scholarship support which will be awarded as prospective students are selected for admission. Those desiring to be fully considered for scholarship support are encouraged to apply as early as possible as funding is generous, but not unlimited.

For more information please contact the Graduate Admission Office:

Graduate Admission Office
Robert Day School of Economics and Finance
Claremont McKenna College
500 E. Ninth Street
Claremont, CA 91711
Email: rdadmission@claremontmckenna.edu
Tel: +909.607.3347

Updates from State University of New York - Plattsburgh

I wanted to share just a few updates about SUNY Plattsburgh that you may find useful:

Plattsburgh has been named among the top schools in the 2009 edition of "America's Best Colleges" by U.S. News & World Report.

We've added some new bachelor's degrees:

- Fitness & Wellness Leadership - prepares students for career opportunities in medically-based fitness facilities, commercial health clubs, Pilates/yoga/group exercise centers, sports performance clinics, physical therapy clinics, personal training studios, senior centers, hospital wellness centers and more.
<http://web.plattsburgh.edu/academics/sportwellness/major.php>
- Management Information Systems - this brings the number of majors offered in our AACSB-accredited School of Business & Economics to eleven.
<http://web.plattsburgh.edu/academics/management/mismajor.php>

We've added a scholarship calculator to our website to enable you, as well as your students and their families, to get an accurate assessment of their potential scholarship package based on academic achievement and country of residence. Here's the URL for the calculator:

<https://banweb.cc.plattsburgh.edu/pls/banprd/international.scholarships>

We use rolling admission so there is no specific application deadline, but we encourage completed applications by no later than April 1 for September entry and November 1 for January entry. We have already begun reviewing applications for fall 2009 enrollment.

Please feel free to contact me or any member of my staff anytime.

Sincerely,

Ms. Jacqueline ("Jackie") Girard Vogl
Director, International Student Services
State University of New York - Plattsburgh

Email: jackie.vogl@plattsburgh.edu

Web: www.plattsburgh.edu/international

Undergraduate: Are you ready to connect to Butler University?

Hello! Are you ready to connect to Butler University?

Here are a few highlights:

- Located in Indianapolis, the 13th largest city in the U.S.
- National Reputation: ranked 4th in the Midwest by US News & World Report. Over 60 majors and programs to study in Business, Liberal Arts & Sciences, Performing Arts, Pharmacy and Education
- Small class sizes and no teaching assistants
- Merit, talent and athletic scholarships for international students
- Full service International Student Services office

Scholarships:

Butler University is pleased to offer financial assistance to academically talented undergraduate students. Butler International Student Scholarships take into consideration a student's academic merit and are available to international applicants. More information: www.butler.edu/admissions/finaid/ and click "International Students".

If you would like for us to send an information packet by post to you, please click:

<http://go.butler.edu/apps/requestinfo/index.asp>

Otherwise, go to <http://go.butler.edu/international> for more information, application requirements and deadlines.

Jerome F. Dueweke
Butler University
Senior Assistant Director of Admission/Coordinator of International Admission

4600 Sunset Ave.
Indianapolis, IN 46208 USA
Phone: 001-317-940-8100
Email: admission@butler.edu
Web: <http://go.butler.edu/international>