

FELLOWSHIP OPPORTUNITIES- FIVE COLLEGE WOMENS STUDIES RESEARCH CENTER

FIVE COLLEGE WOMENS STUDIES RESEARCH CENTER A collaborative project of Amherst, Hampshire, Mount Holyoke, and Smith Colleges and the University of Massachusetts, Amherst

The Center invites applications for its RESEARCH ASSOCIATESHIPS for 2009-2010 from scholars and teachers at all levels of the educational system, as well as from artists, community organizers and political activists, both local and international. Associates are provided with offices in our spacious facility, faculty library privileges, and the collegiality of a diverse community of feminists. Research Associate applications are accepted for either a semester or the academic year. The Center supports projects in all disciplines so long as they focus centrally on women or gender. Research Associateships are non-stipendiary. We accept about 15-18 Research Associates per year.

Applicants should submit a project proposal (up to 4 pages), curriculum vitae, two letters of reference, and application cover sheet. Submit all applications to: Five College Women's Studies Research Center, Mount Holyoke College, 50 College Street, South Hadley, MA 01075-6406. Deadline is February 9, 2009. For further information, contact the Center at TEL 413.538.2275, FAX 413.538.3121, email fcwsrc@fivecolleges.edu, website: <http://www.fivecolleges.edu/sites/fcwsrc>

Wesleyan University Mellon post-doctoral fellowship in Middle Eastern Studies

WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY is pleased to announce a Mellon post-doctoral fellowship in Middle Eastern Studies for the academic year 2009-10, beginning July 1, 2009.

We welcome applicants from any academic discipline. The fellow will teach a general introduction to the contemporary Middle East, grounded in his/her academic discipline, in the fall term and an upper-level course of his/her design on some aspect of Middle Eastern Studies in the spring term. In addition, the fellow will consult with faculty, administrators, and students on developing a program of Middle Eastern Studies at Wesleyan. The Mellon Fellowship offers a stipend of $45,000 for the year, plus benefits and some support for research.

Applicants should send a cover letter, CV, a representative sample of their scholarship, a proposed syllabus for the course on the contemporary Middle East, and three letters of recommendation to: Bruce Masters, History Dept, Wesleyan University, 238 Church St., Middletown CT 06459. Successful candidates must have already received their PhD or provide evidence of its completion before July 1, 2009.

Wesleyan University is an equal opportunity and affirmative action employer and welcomes applications from women and members of historically under-represented minority groups.

Deadline April 15, 2009.

University of South Florida- Master's in American Studies

The Master's degree program in American Studies at the University of South Florida is actively seeking international applicants. The program offers advanced training in American literature and culture and American Studies methodology for career educators. This is a two-year program; the requirements for graduation are the completion of 9 graduate courses and a Master's thesis. Minimum requirements for admission are a Bachelor's degree and scores of 500 and 4.5 on the Verbal and Analytical Writing portions of the GRE. More information is available on our website, <http://www.cas.usf.edu/humanities/grad.html>.

We have Graduate Fellowships and Teaching Assistantships available to support international students. The applicant entering in the fall of 2010 who scores highest on the GRE will receive a one-year, $10,000 fellowship. In addition, all students accepted will receive positions as teaching assistants, if they wish, provided that they have these minimum TOEFL scores: Reading: 20; Writing: 24; Listening: 20; Speaking: 24. Teaching assistantships include a tuition waiver and a stipend. This stipend is $2270 per semester in the first year and $5200 per semester in the second year, and there are three teaching semesters per year. However, the tuition waiver does not include the waiver of student fees, which amount to approximately $2000 per year; and the cost of living in Tampa is estimated at $12,000 per year.

Financing MBA in recession: Over $1,600,000 scholarships offered by QS World MBA Tour QS, the organizers of the World MBA Tour and World Grad School Tour, today announced the inclusion of scholarships from Melbourne Business School and Moscow School of Management SKOLKOVO to a list of scholarship partners including The Wharton School, Vlerick, EMLYON, Cass Business School, Chicago Booth and several other top business schools. The total scholarship amount is now over US$1.6m, exclusively available to attendees of the Fall 2008 and Spring 2009 QS tours. The MBA scholarships, which include the annual QS Community and Leadership Awards, will benefit committed business leaders and talents of the future. The deadline for completed applications for the QS Scholarships is April 20th

The new scholarships are as follows:

- Melbourne Business School International Scholarship: AUD25,000
- Moscow School of Management SKOLKOVO Challenge Scholarship: €50,000

Zoya Zaitseva, manager of the QS World MBA Tour scholarships program, says: "During uncertain economic times, MBA scholarships take on an even greater value than usual as many of the usual lines of credit are harder to find. We are working tirelessly to bring even more schools on board and encouraging them to create more merit-based scholarships. We are proud to welcome recent contributions from EMLYON and Vlerick, since fall 2008, and Skolkovo and Melbourne from spring 2009. There are more in the pipeline so candidates should really make an effort to get to the fairs and apply before 20th April."

Nunzio Quacquarelli, managing director of QS and the World MBA Tour, says: "It is testament to the faith the world's leading business schools have in the success of the QS Tours that even during this economic downturn, when schools are understandably cautious about their scholarships and other finances, the amount of scholarship funding they have made available on the QS Tours in 2009 has increased from last year by almost 30%. We know that more people are considering using the economic downturn as a chance to further their education and to put themselves in a stronger position on the other side of the recession. Visiting a QS World MBA Tour fair is the ideal place to start and allows attendees to apply for those MBA scholarships."

In recent years, dozens of ambitious and talented professionals have emerged victorious with scholarships awarded as a result of visiting the QS World MBA Tours. People from Bulgaria, China, Chile, France, Korea, India, Italy, Russia, Ukraine, USA and other countries have seen their MBA scholarship awards further their careers at some of the best schools in the world.

The previously announced MBA scholarships are:

- QS Leadership Scholarship for MBA and Postgraduate Studies: Two scholarship awards of $10,000 each (one MBA applicant, one postgraduate applicant)
- QS Community Scholarships for MBA and Postgraduate Studies: Five scholarship awards of $2,000
- QS World Grad School Tour Innovation Scholarship: One $10,000 scholarship
- The Wharton School Scholarship: US$30,000 per annum
- Chicago Booth School of Business Scholarship: One $40,000 merit-based scholarship, renewable annually
- IE Business School Scholarships for Women: Two scholarships, €22,500 each
- Vlerick Leuven Gent Management School Scholarships: A total of €425,000, in association with some of the world's leading MBA recruiters
- Politecnico di Milano QS Scholarships: A total of €500,000 for selected students for Masters in Engineering, Architecture and Management
- Cass Business School, London Scholarships: Six scholarships for full-time and Executive MBA applicants, worth a total of £93,000
